NEW YORK THEATERS COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Fiske's Becky Sharp is familiar to our theatergoers, the Lyceum Theater held a large audience Monday night, when this well-known impersonation of Thackeray's heroine, Becky Sharp. As the years roll by Mrs. Flake's art broadens, until now her interpretations of strong dramatic roles have become a standard. Becky Shars. Becky Sharp, as now presented by her, is appealing, and on the opening night elicited much vigorous applause. An in-teresting feature of the performance was the first appearance of Henry E. Dixey as a member of Mrs. Fiske's company He was seen in the character of the Mar quis of Steyne and gave a vivid embodi ment of that vicious old gentleman. The entire performance was a most enjoyable one, and at the end of the last act the of thanks before the audience would leave the theater. "As a Man Thinks," a play by Augus-

"As a Man Thinks," a play by Augustus Thomas, is a hit and should run the season out at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater. It is this way: A man believes his wife is unitue to him and has good reason for so thinking, but in spite of incriminating circumstances she is as pure as the driven snow, or words to that effect. In one of the big scenes the father of the wife inadvertently tells his son-in-law that he saw the wife enter the rooms of a former lover. About this time John Mason, as a rabbi, interferes and proves the wife innocent of all evil intentions. Of course, the play ends here. As a rabbi, Mr. Mason has never done better work. Chrystal Herne lends valuable assistance in the role of the wife. Mr. John Flood, although somewhand. When Mr. Thomas worse. The Manhattan Oners House built for woman, with lots of magnetism and an excellent voice, which she uses to advantage. The entire performance is a spirited one and moves with the swiftness of the "twentieth century limited" The operaturable shalf a dosen melodious songs and two or three rattling good choruses. In this production Klaw & Erlanger have excelled themselves, as nothing quite so gorgeous in the way of scenery and contumes has ever before been shown on the local stage. The Pink Lady" has received a cordial welcome, and should stay in town all summer. Gaston Mayer, the well-known London freeducing manager, arrived in New York last week, bringing with him a contract slarted by Mme. le Barry, the most famous of the Comedie Francaise celebrities. She comes under the management of Liebler & Co. next scason. The French actress begins a twelve weeks engagement in New York in October appearing in a repertoire of modern plays now being selected for ber use. Mme. It is made at the large will soon produce at the Lyceum Theater a new comedy, in which she and Henry E. Dixcy will have the larger word that engagement in New York in October, appearing in a repertoire of modern plays now being selected for her use. Mme. le Hargy will play all her roles in English, in which she is as fluent as in her native tongue. In private life Simone le Barny is Mme. Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-law of an ex-President of the French republic. She is looked upon in Europe as the logical successor of Sarah Bernhardt. She has had an interesting career, beginning eight seasons ago, when at the Gymnase Theatre in Paris she appeared in the leading role of "Le Detour," written by Henri Bernstein. The cubic deten by Henri Bernstein. The cable de-scriptive of her triumph in this play known young man.

COMING CONCERTS.

Beethoven, Wagner, Tschalkowsky, Saint-Saens, and Chabrier figure prom-inently in the programme which has been arranged for the final concert of the seathis city by the Philharmonic Society of New York, which will take place at the New National Theater Tues-day afternoon, With the magnificent ing popularity of the orchestra as its numbers, merits become better known, the enormous demand upon T. Arthur Smith, whose agency is handling the local en-

the Columbia Theater Monday April II, by Victor Herbert and his orchestra, assisted by soloists who cannot fall to command the immediate interest of the Washington public. It will be the first of a series of concerts that have been arranged, and will be managed by arranged, and will be managed by the Addiffe, of the Radcliffe Bureau
written a play."
"I see that a London chauffeur has written a play."
"Wonder if it shows the divine spark." in this city. This series will extend continuously over a period of several montha.

Accompanying Mr. Herbert on this tour will be a company of concert and grand opera soloists. Included in the Washington programme will be a number of, selections from Mr. Herbert's new opera, "Natoma," that as the first American arrand opera has had the musical centers agog since the date of its first production, hardly a month ago. This music will be heard for the first time in this city on Easter day.

v York, March 2.—Although Mrs.
's Becky Sharp is familiar to our ergoers, the Lyceum Theater held the audience Monday night, when this ite actress began an engagement in vell-known impersonation of Thacksheroine, Becky Sharp. As the roll by Mrs. Flake's art broadens, now her interpretations of strong how mer interpretations of strong how, and for this reason refuses to whe cinematograph of life and not a heauty show, and for this reason refuses to unhance her natural heauty by the aid of the "paint pot," as she calls it. Often she will purposely disorder her hair to gain the effect she desires. Withal she is "considered one of the handsomest women of the Parisian stage.

When "The Deep Purple" was put on at the Lyric Theater some months ago, inspector George McClosky was among the first to see a performance. In the play there are a number of policemen, and the authors showed the proportion to be 68 2-3 dishonest to 31 1-3 honest. Inspector McClosky declared this to be an unfair division. The management thereupon addressed letters to editors of newspapers all over the United States. newspapers all over the United States, explaining the situation, and asking as accelent as the have a schient as the have a playright. But "As a Man Thinks" will live long after the former play has been forgotten.

Last week at the Bijou Theater a new play called "The Confession" was produced the Karatish termination of the Caratish termination of the Caratish termination of the Caratis cat in New York in October, in a repertoire of modern plays is selected for her use. Mm. le leading roles.

Manager Al McLain sends word that he has decided to start Fiske O'Hara's spring four in "Wearing of the Green" in private life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life Simone le Barry Casimer-Perier, daughter-in-list four in "Wearing of the Green" aprivate life in Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Rochester, and Syracuse, closing May 7 in the latter city. Next season he will appear in a new romantic Irish drama by Theodore Burt Sayre, the story of which is founded on one of Moore's poems, The clight seasons ago, when at the Counted on one of Moore's poems, The Theodore Burt Sayre, the story of which is founded on one of Moore's poems, The vivacious and alluring Marie Quinn is bill his leading roles.

He will spend his summer veaction at his whose countenance seemed never to change in expression, but vot kind of the will spend his summer veaction at his whose countenance seemed never to change in expression, but vot kind of strup you want him midout? Midout Summer veaction at his descent, he was born loved to be the will spend his summer veaction at his summer veaction at his leading roles.

French Opera Company.

tical, as she has created leading roles George C. Tyler, managing director of the most successful of his plays. Liebler & Co., has gone to the desert of ong these have been "Le Bercall". Sahara.
JEROME H. EDDY.

Cosmos Concert To-day.

Among the acts secured for the concert to-day are Franz Meisel, the gifted violinist, in new selections: the Transfield Sisters, novelty musical act: Vida and Sisters, noveity musical act; Vida and Hawley, comedy character studies: Mr. and Mrs. Byron Spaun, eccentric comedy; Mitzie Admant, vocal and instrumental imitations, and Ruby Raymond, singing comedience. The orchestral numbers incomedienne. The orchestral numbers in-clude the "Freischutz" overture, except from "The Dollar Princess," three dances ay afternoon. With the magnificent clude the "Freischutz" overture, excepts obtralto, Mme. Kirkby-Lunn, as the so- from "The Dollar Princess," three dances ust of the occasion, and the ever-grow-

Barrett Lecture.

mous demand upon T. Arthur Smith, whose agency is handling the local engagement, for reservations is not surprising agement, for reservations is not surprising which Robert S. Barrett, the ing. As finally revised the programme will include the following numbers:

Overture, "Leconer, No. 2. Bestionen Symphony," "Pathetique," No. 5. Bestionen Symphony, "Pathetique," No. 6. B minor Symphony, "Sameon and Doillah" Saint-Seens of the situation. The American army is shown on one side of the Rio

At the Belasco Theater ne William A. Brady announces the William A. Brady announces the appearance of that eminent actor. Robert Mantell, who will appear in a repertoire of Shakespearean and legitimate plays. Mr. Mantell is one of the few actors on the stage to-day who has wen install artistic and formers. tic and financial success in presenting ex tic and financial success in presenting ex-clusively the classic drama. This pres-ent tour will be the last he will make in America for some time, as during the next season or two his manager, Mr. Brady, has arranged an extensive Aus-tralian tour. During his coming engage-ment at the Belasco Mr. Mantell will ap-pear in the following admirable selection of plays: "King Lear," "Hamlet," "Avo You Like It," "Richelleu," "Othelio," "Macbeth," "Merchant of Venice," and "Richard III." Manager Brady has pro-vided a layish seenle production for each "Richard III." Manager Brady has provided a layish scenic production for each play, and an unusually capable supporting company, which will include Mr. Mantell's wife, the beautiful and brilliant Marie Booth Russell, as leading lady; Fritz Leiber, a new leading man from the London stage, where he has been in the support of the foremost stars in England; Agnes Elliott Scott, Henry Fearing, and Alfred Hastings. The regular box office sale begins to-morrow morning.

be turned into a veritable hippodron nagic, when Thurston, the great magi apparatus and twenty people as assist-ants are necessary for Thurston's per-the Casino and Weber & Fields, his ludi-crous and pathetic wrestle with the Eng-lish language has endeared him to amusement lovers. Mr. Bernard has made a profound study of the German character, and while he is a great ad-mirer of the culture and scientific achievements of his "adopted language." achievements of his "adopted language," he occasionally runs across some amusing incident. He tells the following conversation which he overheard the other day in the Bronx in a small drug store where he had stoppd, while out motoring, for a glass of buttermilk:

"The German boy who presided over the soda fountain was plainly accustomed to patrons who did not know their own minds, and his habit of thought was difficult to change.

"Plain soda," said a sicut woman at the counter.

An important event in Washington's musical history will be the coming engagement at the Belasco Theater of Jules Layolle's French Opera Company from the French Opera House New Orlean The fame of this organization is world wide, but it was not until last spring that theater managers throughout the country were able to convince M. Layolic of the wisdom of a trip through the larger cities of the country at the conclusion of his New Orleans season, which is always closed with the Mardi Gras feativitien. The tour last spring was a series of ovations, and it was announced that a similar supplementary season would be played this spring. The opening opera of the coming engagement will be Masasenet's "Manon." This will be its first presentation in this city. Mile Marle Louise Rolland, who created the role in Paris, will appear in the title role in Paris, will appear in the title specific process. The control of the company of th wide, but it was not until last spring

Hungarian. When "The Seven Sisters" was in the course of preparation at Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Theater, in New York, some one suggested that instead of retaining the foreign localization, it ought to be Americanized. The retort was:
"What try to Americanize the domestic

"What, try to Americanize the domestic condition of seven daughter where six of them are held back in short freeks, pinafores, and pigtail braids until the oldest one is married off." That would not be a domestic farce—it would be

Imagine, if you can, such an America

WASHINGTON GIRL WINS SUCCESS.

Adeie Rowland, who is one of the principal players in Sam Bernard's "He Came from Milwaukee," at the Belasco this week, is another of the bright Washington girls who have adopted the stage Casino Concert To-day.

The programme for the concert at the Casino Theater to-day will include the Empire State quartet, whose excellent wocal and comedy talents made them so popular in last week's bill; Bouldin and Quinn, the musical comedians; Loie Goton, dramatic soprano, in operatic selections; Stanley and Holt, singing comedians; the Schlino Trie, harp and flute soloists, and other clever entertainers. The popular motion picture plays will round out an unusually attractive performance.

Text suby the fire favor of the conting at the Hotel Engel

Cafe and Restaurant Faunces for stable, thore, and said.

Inspected German base of stanl.

New Jersey Ave. and C St.

This production of "The Major Of Tokyo," The Spring Chicken." The Hurdy-Gurdy Girl," and other Carle shows. Her last appearance in this city was with Hattle Williams in "The Little Cherub," in which production she played Miss Williams' part during the laster's illness in Boston last season. At the rate she has progressed in the musical comedy world, Miss Rowland's many local friends may soon expect to see her name bits assent in electric lights at go distant data.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMUSEMENTS.

THIS WEEK Thursday and Saturday.

MISS LAURETTE TAYLOR

THE LYCEUM THEATER COMPANY

THE SEVEN SISTERS

As Adapted from the Hungarian of Ference Hercargh by Edith Elils.

Translated by Ferlike Boros.

Direct from THE LYCEUM THEATER, NEW YORK, Where its Run Will Be Resumed at the Close of the Present Brief Spring Tour. NEXT WEEK ANNUAL ENGAGEMENT OF

THE MAGICIAN

MR. ROBERT S. BARRETT Who Will Tell the The Mexican Situation

EASTER MONDAY, APRIL 17, 2 O'CLOCK WICTOR HERBERT AND HIS ORCHESTRA' Subscription Sale Now Open. Radeliffe Bu-

family! Why, the Fourth of July spirit of feminine youth would rise so quickly in revolt that the home would look as if it had been struck by a cyclone. But I the most pronounced hits this season. It had been struck by a cyclone. But it hyman Meyers, noted as "the man at its all very different in Hungary, where the piano," is another of the special features. The Six Dancing Dennos in their fascinating solo and ensemble dancing, have been secured. The sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present their thrilling hipportone for the sensation which give the oldest daughter a girls in the family willingly remain in the background until she is married off. Perhaps not always willingly, but when they are restive they are subdued by an interest thrilling hipportone for the sensational Boises will present the other size of the sensational Boises will present the other size of the background until she is married off. Perhaps not always willingly, but when they are restive they are subdued by an interest the sensation and the background until she is married to be background until she is all three present the present the present the present the background until she is all three present the present the

they are resilve they are success, and reduced ages.

Marriage, appears to be the only vocation in life open to young women in the land of the Magyar, and where there is more than one in a family it requires all the domestic philosophy of the Hungarian mother to keep matters moving smoothly. The daughters of the gentry are trained from childhood for a matrimonial career, and the question of marriage, viewed from the American standpoint, might easily be arranged in a series of chapters. There would be: "Opening of the Dowry Fund," "Preparing Girls for the Altar." "The Sanctity of Engagements." "The Prells of Flirtation," "The Education of the Bride," The Freilminaries to Wooing," "The End of the "Woo."

At the age of ten, the accumulation of dowry linen begins. The olidest unmarried daughter is the only one eligible formatrimony, the younger ones being kept in the background that each may be married in turn and no risk taken of having an old maid in the family. Great stress is laid on cooking to win and retain a husband's affection. No freedom is allowed a young girl in the way of atte ulon from the opposite sex unless she is betrothed. When a Hungarian kisses a girl he must be prepared either to marry her or fight a duel with any male relative if the flirtation be discovered.

The wedding celebrations with people of the higher social station are tremen.

if the firtation be discovered. The wedding celebrations with people of the higher social station are tremendous social functions. Sometimes they last as long as six days. No regular hours are observed, but eating, drinking, card playing, singing and dancing are kept up continuously, the guests and the gypsy musicians snatching a few hours' sleep from time to time. Sometimes after the wedding the guests adjourn to the house or castle of some other guest, where the festivities are continued est, where the festivities are continue

Robert Mantell's Career.

Robert Mantell is universally conceded

George Clark, afterward an importan member of Daly's company in New York was starring through the English prov-inces at the time in "The Shaughraun," and the youthful actor's second appear ance was made with Mr. Clark as Fathe holan in that play. Samuel Phelps found him in this little company and took him to Saddler's Wells in London, where he had a valuable Shakespearean experi-ence. After a brief tour in support of Marie De Grey he made his second trip had a valuable Shakespearean experience. After a brief tour in support of Marie De Grey he made his second trip to America in 1878.

On his return Mr. Mantell acted first in Helena Modjeska's company, but his stay was brief. After a single season he returned to England to appear with George S. Knight in "Otto" and subsequently he supported Miss Wallis in London in an extended standard repertoire. His first New York appearance was at the Windsor Theater in "The World," in 1882, and his second and more successful appeal for popularity was his Jack Hearne in "The Romany Rye" at Booth's. The next brought the production of "Fedora," by Fanny Davenport, and Mantell as Loris Ipanoff achieved a triumph which echoed for years. In 1884 he created the leading part in "Called Back." This was at the Fifth Avenue, and later in the same year he created the lead in "Dakolar" at the Lyceum.

His finely developed ability and the popularity he achieved in all these roles led to his debut as a star at the Fifth Avenue in 1885 in "Tangled Lives." This was completely overshadowed by "Monbars" in which he achieved a success equal to that of Ipanoff in "Pedora."

Mr. Mantell worked through long tours in various new and old plays and finally built up a reperior of Shakespearean and classic roles.

Since 1890 he has played "The Corsican Brothers," "The Marble Heart." "The Louisanian," "The Face in the Moonlight," "Farrhasius," "A Cavalier of France," "The Dagger and the Cross." "The Merchant of Ventee," "Michard III." "Romeo and Jullet." King Lear, "Machart," "Richellett." "Louis XI," "King John," and "As Tou Like II."

"Mag Haggerty's Visit"

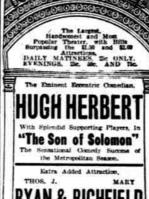

International Polo Teams, Most Enciting Contest Ever Staged

Daylight Motion Pictures. NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON TENOR WILL SING IN OPERA

engaged for one of the leading tenor roles of the English production of Puc-tini's "Girl of the Golden West" which

RYAN & RICHFIELD

LES CADETS DE GASCOGNE Bernard & Dorothy Granville

Marie and Billy Hart, Great Hit in "The Circus Girl."

IN ALL NEW SONGS AND STO-RIES, J. C. NUGENT & CO. SIX OTHER RIG ACTS. BUT SEATS TO-MORROW.

Henry W. Savage: of the Savage Opera Company, New York, has engaged Rich-ard P. Backing, of this city, in a three years' contract. Mr. Backing has been # will be produced by the Savage Grand Opera. Company in New York next October. He is also to prepare the prin-cipal role of Johnson in the opera, in which he is to alternate a limited number of the company. The contract was entered into between Richard P. Backing Engaged for "Girl of Golden West."

The contract was entered into between Mr. Savage and Mr. Sydney Lloyd Wrightson, after the former heard Mr. Backing at the Belasco Theater on Saturday. February 13, at which time he sang several numbers for the impresario, who pronounced him the possessor of an exceptional voice.

Henry W. Savage of the Savage Opera.

Company, New York, has engaged Richmann, New York, has engaged Richmann, New York, has engaged Richmann.

Mr. Backing is twenty-seven years of age and has studied for the past six and a hait years with Mr. Wrightson, who has been his only teacher. He is a graduate of the Washington College of Music of this city. At the present time he is tenor soloist in Calvary Baptist Church. He was born and raised in Washington, and is one of the most popular of our local singers. He sings with an elevated artistic conception and is a sincere and conscientious artist.

9th & Pa. Avo. N. W. Evenlaga, Still THIS WEEK

Natinee, All Seats Iven, Coupen Reserved Seats. A few at 15c. 10c NEXT WEEK

Stock Co. MAJESTIC

SHERLOCK HOLMES

AMUSEMENTS. TO-MORROW NIGHT AT 8:20 AND WEEK

SATURDAY MATINEE (ONLY) AND NIGHTS, 50c TO $2.00.

AMUSEMENTS.

"HE CAME FROM MILWAUKEE" COMPANY OF 100.

ORIGINAL CHORUS HANDSOMEST NEW YORK CHORUS IN THE WORLD.

s filled when accompanied by remittance. Telephone for scats, Main IR. This will fell's last appearance in Washington for a long time, as his plans call for a in Australia during the season of 1911-2. Prices: 36 to §2. TWO WEEKS, APRIL 10 AND 17-SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT

AMERICA'S MOST NOTABLE OPERATIC ORGANIZATION PLAYING AT NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

THE FAMOUS FRENCH OPERA CO.!... MOR. Eve., "MANON."
Tues, Eve., "CARMEN."
Wed, Mat., "LA TRAVIATA."
Wed, Eve., "LES HUGUENOTS."
Thur. Eve., "LA BOHEME."
Fri. Eve., "SIGURD."
Sat. Mat., "RIGOLETTO."
Sat. Eve., "LAKME."

Mail orders filled now when accompanied by remittance and a stamped and addressed envelope for mailing tickets. Prices: 50c to $2.

MATINEES 10c and

CONTINUOUS SHOW ALL WEEK-12:45 TO 11 P. M. ROBERT, HAYS AND ROBERT

"THE COWBOY, THE LADY, AND THE SWELL" THE WONDERFUL WHISTLER, And a Singer and Monologist Unequaled.

FRANKIE LA MARCHE

be Original Buster Brown Girl, and Her $2,000 Dog Tige. MUSICAL KLEISES

ARTHUR CONNELLY

Be Originates, Others Imitate, AMERICA'S BEST AND LATEST MOTION PICTURE PLAYS. SUNDAY CONCERTS Continuous Al! Day. 3 P. M. Beginning at EMPIRE STATE QUARTET. BOULDIN AND QUINN, LOIE GORDON, STANLEY AND HOLT, SELBINO TRIO, AND OTHERS.

CAYETY

DAINTY DUCHESS ■ JOE MORRIS ■

MAY WALSH IN TWO FAST AND PURIOUS MUSICAL BURLETTAS

THE STAG CLUB and A SULTAN FOR

A BIG BEAUTY CHORUS OF 40 PEOPLE

NEXT WEEK..... THE COLUMBIA BURLESQUERS

of times during the thirty weeks' tour

MAJESTIC TWO SHOWS DAILY 6 Star Acts

O'Connor and Rowe

TO-MORROW MATINEE. THE BEST YET!

STAR SHOW GIRLS

BAKER & LYNN SPECIAL FEATURE. GERTIE LE CLAIR And Her 5 Pickantonies

WEEK -THE BIG REVIEW

MOVING PICTURES

THE PLAZA 434 NINTH STREET R. W. 3 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. "The Kid from Arizona." "Who Gets the Order."

50-DAILY AND SUNDAY-